

AUSTRALIAN NATIONAL
Botanic Gardens
Footprint
EnviroFest

March 14 2010

Footprint EnviroFest will provide the Canberra community an opportunity to obtain information about Australian plants, sustainable issues and solutions and provide a one stop experience for information, garden workshops and demonstrations.

Activities include gardening workshops, guided tours, childrens' activities, planting demonstrations and exhibits by earth friendly organisations.

Entertainment and food stalls also included.

Footprint EnviroFest in the Gardens

March 14 2010
10 am – 4 pm

Hands-on activities and displays

ACT Waterwatch
Australian Native Plant Society
Australian Network for Plant Conservation
Botanical Resource Centre
Canberra Bonsai Society
Clean Energy For Eternity
Conservation Volunteers
Family scavenger hunt
Friends of the Gardens
Greening Australia
Living Greener
and more

Live music

Annie & the Armadillos
Mr Fibby
Roving performers

Talks

Australian Succulents
Fungi
Meet the Artist - Yvonna de Jong
Bush Foods
Seed Banking
Acacia Tree of Trees

Demonstrations

Botanical art
Bonsai
Water wise gardening

Educational Activities

Pond dipping
Recycled art
Bird nesting box construction

Guided walks on the hour every hour

Visit the Explorer table

Who lives here? children's walk

Botanical Brainteasers
Mystery on Black Mountain

Partnering with the Arboretum

A bus shuttle will operate between the Gardens and the Canberra International Arboretum and Gardens 'Festival of the Forest' between 12 noon and 4.00 pm

Australian National Botanic Gardens
Clunies Ross Street, Acton, Canberra
Ph 02 6250 9540 www.anbg.gov.au/anbg/

Australian Government
Director of National Parks

CANBERRA
FESTIVAL 2010

Supported by the Friends of the Gardens and the ACT Government